Dear Tom,

Thanks for your letter. It was nice to hear from you again! Sorry I haven't answered earlier but I was busy with my school project. Hope you didn't have accidents while hiking!

As for me, I don't have much time on active holidays because I have a lot of homework. My family is more the stay-at-home sort, so I can't spend the time with them somehow actively. My company is my friend and, you know, our trips are usually very jolly. I'd like to try rafting this spring, because it implies a well coordinated team work, good reaction and nerves of steel.

Anyway, you've mentioned a project. Do you like writing about events of the past? What events did you choose for your project? Are they from the same historical period?

I'd better go now as my Dad wants me to help him with his car. Write soon!

Love,

Ann

3. Describe a picture:

1. I have chosen the first photo.
2. I took this photo when we were having a family dinner at my grandparents' house last winter. That is how we usually spend weekends during the winter time so I have at least a dozen other similar photos.
3. In this photo you can see all my brothers and sisters, and my grandparents as well. They look happy as the dinner has already started and it is absolutely delicious. There is lots of food, the room is dimly lit and atmosphere is very cozy.
4. As I have already mentioned, we are having dinner in this picture. What is more, we are talking, discussing some school issues and having fun. Well, it is not shown in the picture, but I had taken it a few seconds before mother brought in a delicious turkey.

5. The reason why I keep this photo is because I really love my family and I adore such evenings. We gather together, share some school stories and enjoy ourselves. Another reason for keeping the photo is the opportunity of recollecting those memories any time I need it.
6. I wanted to share this picture with you because as far as I know you are going to have some family weekend soon, so I would like to remind you how important and pleasant it is to keep such sweet memories.
7. That is all I wanted to say.
